

As a broadcast engineer and a licensed amateur radio I foresee BPL presenting multitudinous reception difficulties for the broadcast audience and for amateur radio communication. I also foresee service problems for BPL subscribers.

The Commission feels that all problems that arise will be solved through "cognitive mitigation" - I certainly disagree and urge the Commission to seriously look at the threat BPL poses to reception of the services provided by the primary licensees in the band spectra being considered for BPL. Thank You.